What is LatinSummer?

LatinSummer is a two-week program that provides students a unique chance to learn about Latin and the classical world. Students will explore Latin, mythology, Roman culture, and more. The program's hands-on classes will be taught by creative, enthusiastic high school and college Latin students under the supervision of experienced teachers. No prior knowledge of Latin or Classics is required. Students receive t-shirts!

Who: Students currently in grades 1-7. Public-schooled, private-schooled, and homeschooled students are all welcome to attend.

When: July 14 - 25, 2014 (weekdays)
9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Where: Samford University
Homewood, AL
Birmingham Metro Area

Cost: $275 per student
Significantly reduced rates available depending on financial need. See registration form for details.

Previous LatinSummer students:
We have a new curriculum for 2014!

What will students learn?

Areas of focus will include:

- Greco-Roman Mythology
- Roman Culture & Daily Life
- Classical & Conversational Latin

Topics include:

- Latin vocabulary and roots
- hands-on Latin sentences
- Olympic games
- Roman clothing
- gladiators
- architecture
- banquets
- mosaics and art
- gods and goddesses
- much more!

Students will be grouped by age. Instruction, pacing, and content will be tailored to the unique needs of each group.

Why teach Latin to young students?

When students learn Latin, they learn about far more than a language and a culture. They learn to appreciate humanity.

The classical world can be found in our:

- literature, art, and architecture
- values and political ideals
- sense of history

Latin also helps students to develop:

- a stronger English vocabulary
- connections with other subjects
- skills of logic and reason
- an ability to think critically
- openness and creativity
- enthusiasm for learning
