Dear Parent/Guardian,

The first several days of LatinSummer have gone very well! We are enjoying working with your children.

I am writing to inform you of the following two things:

- ✓ Tomorrow (Friday, July 7) a reporter and photographer from The Annapolis Capital will visit the LatinSummer program between the hours of 10-11am in preparation for an article about the program in the Features section of the Capital.
- ✓ Photos of student work are now available for viewing on our website. Click on "LatinSummer" and then "Students" to view images from the first several days of camp. More will be posted as LatinSummer progresses. We hope that this will provide a way for not only you, but also for the rest of your child's family and friends, to become aware of the sorts of activities in which your child is participating in LatinSummer.

The idea of "Classical Moments" went over well with the students – please encourage your children to keep looking for examples of Latin and Classical Studies in their lives.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions, comments, or concerns. You may reach me via the e-mail address or toll-free number above.

Thank you for your support,

Matthew D. Webb, Director
